

I desperately want to continue hearing K-LOVE in my area. I listen to it continually when in my car, especially. If K-LOVE were to be displaced, it would leave a huge gap for the many Christians I know who love the station. K-LOVE gives a message to our community that is encouraging, hopeful, and uplifting, a message desperately needed.